RECITAL BY WHITE WEDNESDAY
TO BE IN MEMORY OF MR. PERRY

MISSOULA--

A violin recital Wednesday night (Dec. 1) at the University of Montana will be in memory of the late Laurence B. Perry, chairman of the UM Department of Music who died of a heart attack Friday in Missoula.

The recital, which is open to the public without charge, will be presented by James D. White, a UM music instructor, at 8:15 p.m. in the UM Music Recital Hall.

White will be assisted by Rudolph Wendt, a UM music professor and faculty pianist, and the Montana Little Symphony, directed by Jerry Domer, an assistant professor of music at UM.

Works to be featured in Wednesday's program will include movements from "Sonatas" by Brahms, Grieg and Mozart, the "Andante" from Mendelssohn's "Violin Concerto," and Beethoven's "Romance in F major."

Funeral services for Mr. Perry will be at 10:30 a.m. Tuesday (Nov. 30) at the First Presbyterian Church, 235 S. 5th St. W.
